Nuuk, Greenland - Jun 22, 2025

Nuuk

Our adventure begins in Nuuk, the vibrant capital of Greenland. Nestled between rugged mountains and the icy fjord, the city offers a fascinating blend of modern culture and Arctic heritage. We explored colourful streets and soaked in the breathtaking views, setting the perfect tone for the journey ahead.

At Sea

A full day at sea gave us the chance to relax and soak in the vast Arctic wilderness. With endless ocean views and fresh sea air, we prepared for the upcoming explorations while enjoying onboard talks and spotting seabirds dancing on the waves.

Ilulissat

Arriving in Ilulissat, we were greeted by the awe-inspiring Ilulissat Icefjord, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Towering icebergs, calved from the glacier, floated in the fjord, creating a stunning, ever-changing landscape. We explored the charming town and marvelled at the raw power of nature.

Uummannaq

The picturesque town of Uummannaq welcomed us with its iconic heart-shaped mountain rising dramatically above colourful houses. Surrounded by Arctic beauty, we immersed ourselves in the local culture and breathtaking landscapes, feeling the unique spirit of Greenland's remote north.

Perlerfiup

Gliding through the serene waters of Perlerfiup, we were surrounded by towering cliffs and untouched wilderness. The quiet fjord revealed hidden coves and dramatic landscapes, offering a peaceful moment to connect with Greenland's raw, pristine beauty.

Camp Mario

Dense fog kept us from landing at Camp Mario, but the adventure continued aboard our Zodiacs. We cruised through mist-shrouded waters, enveloped in mysterious Arctic silence and stunning scenery —turning an obstacle into a uniquely memorable experience.

Equip Sermia

Though we didn't reach the glacier itself, we cruised through dazzling fields of floating ice in our Zodiacs. Surrounded by shimmering icebergs and glistening blue floes, the serene Arctic landscape provided a magical and peaceful experience on the water.

Mila's Cove

We ventured into uncharted territory at Marralinnguaq, also known as Mila's Cove, nestled within Ata Sound. This hidden gem revealed pristine landscapes and tranquil waters, offering a rare glimpse of untouched Arctic beauty and a true sense of discovery.

Qeqertarsuaq

Our visit to Qeqertarsuaq, also known as Disko Island, revealed a rugged landscape shaped by ancient volcanic forces. We explored a charming settlement nestled among dramatic mountains and sweeping tundra, immersing ourselves in the island's unique natural and cultural heritage.

Sisimiut

In Sisimiut, Greenland's second-largest town, we experienced a vibrant blend of modern life and Arctic tradition. Colourful houses, lively markets, and rugged nearby trails made it a memorable and dynamic stop on our expedition.

Evighedsfjord

We cruised past a towering bird cliff, alive with the calls of thousands of seabirds nesting on its rugged face. Nearby, a stunning glacier carved its way into the fjord, its icy blue walls reflecting beautifully in the calm waters—a dramatic and unforgettable Arctic scene.

Farewell

Back in Nuuk, we reflected on an incredible journey through Greenland's wild beauty. As we said goodbye to this vibrant Arctic capital, memories of glaciers, fjords, and remote landscapes stayed with us—a lasting reminder of the raw power and serene magic of the North.
